

Good Reading for Kids

Good Reading also publish an Australian digital only magazine suitable for primary school students. They publish stories, articles, book reviews and art, or in fact anything made or built, by Australia's brilliant young creatives, whether that be writing, video, music, or art, in any shape or form.

It is useful for primary school aged children to learn about books and art from their own peers and helps them determine what they might like to read next or even encourage them to pursue their creative interests.

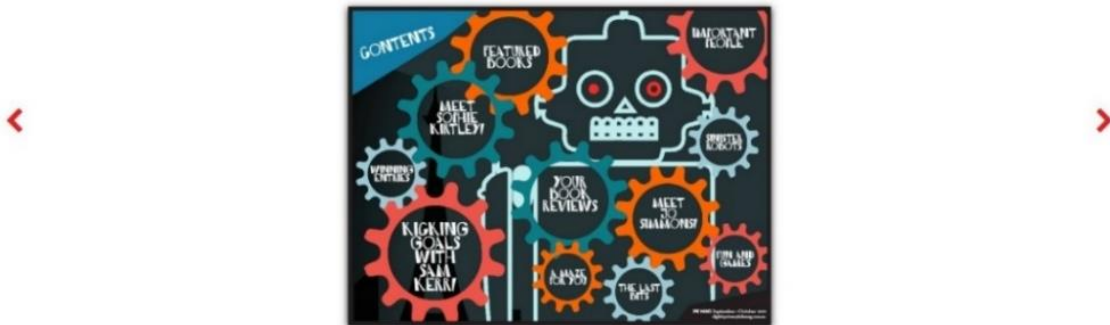

You can access full text replicas back to 2004.

Latest issue

When you click on the Good Reading for Kids link, it will take you to a landing page.

You can browse past issues here or click on the top one to read the most recent issue.

Use the red arrows on either side of the page to 'flip' the pages of the magazine and click on the page to magnify it.

Search

In the top right corner, you can click on a magnifying glass icon.

This will give you the option of searching for an author's name, a book title, or any keywords either in the current issue or in all past issues.
