

What was life like in the past?

Now and Then, The past in the present

Stage 1 years 1/2 HSIE HT1-3 ACHASSK046

Objects can tell stories about people who lived in the past.

Using the museum's permanent gallery 'Resonances', students consider what life was like in the past and compare it with the present.

During the program, students will explore and learn about objects in the exhibition that were used in the past. They will then have the opportunity to interact with objects from the Liverpool Regional Museum's collection in a hands-on workshop.

Duration 90 mins plus 15 mins welcome and induction

This program can be adapted, please contact the museum to discuss. The program can also be combined with the Collingwood House: The Case of the Mixed- up Muddled- up curator.

Students 20-25 per session

For more information contact Liverpool Regional Museum 02 8711 7126

liverpoolregionalmuseum@liverpool.nsw.gov.au