

Telling Many Stories

Stage 4/5 Elective History

HTE4-9 HTE5-9 HTE4-10 HTE5-10 Historical skills based program

Have you ever wondered how museum curators plan and design their exhibitions?

Learn how to curate your own exhibition in a workshop led by museum professionals.

Using the permanent gallery 'Resonances' as an example, students will learn about the work behind the scenes and how curators tell the story of an object.

They will follow the curatorial process, looking at the exhibition, theme and object labels, and thinking about displays and programs to help interpret the exhibition.

Duration 120 mins plus 15 induction and welcome.

This program can be adapted please contact the museum to discuss.

20- 25 students per session
