

NSW AMES

NSW AMES helps you with your speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. It is for people with English as a Second Language, if they are beginners or advanced speakers.

World Wide English and Living in Australia help people with English as a second language. They are general English courses helping with everyday conversation.

The six doctors modules are for people who work in or are studying medicine.

Turn the pages by using the left or right arrows in the bottom right corner.

Each page will give you a story that could happen in real life. Most will also include an activity to practice your skills.

Any activities will score you at the bottom, but you can try again to fix any that you get wrong.

People meet at a party. They say hello.

Put the words in groups.

▶ Good, and you?	Skip
Hello	How are you?	country
	▶ Fine thanks.	▶ I'm from Vietnam.

Score: 2 / 6 ?

Why has Andrew come to see Dr Cooper? To find out, watch the beginning of the consultation.

As you listen, also consider these questions:

- Who begins the consultation?
- How does it begin? What is said?
- What possible diagnoses would the doctor be thinking about?

Play the video now.

If you wish to read as you listen, click the transcript button on the video player.

If you wish to read the whole history-taking, click on whole text.
