

Good Reading for Young Adults

Good Reading also publish an Australian digital only magazine suitable for high school students. They publish stories, articles, book reviews and art, or in fact anything made or built, by Australia's brilliant young creatives, whether that be writing, video, music, or art, in any shape or form.

It is useful for high school aged youth to learn about books and art from their own peers and helps them determine what they might like to read next or even encourage them to pursue their creative interests.

You can access full text replicas back to 2010.
