Home page

From the home page, you can browse by an author's name, search for an author or certain aspects of books, or find a list of features which provides certain lists of books and authors from the top bar.

Authors

When you have found an author you like, by browsing by surname or searching, you will see basic information about the author and their books, such as birth country, genres, and notable series. Most importantly, you'll be given a list of authors who are similar in genres and writing style.
