

Story Box Library

Story Box Library is an educational website created for children where stories by local authors and illustrators are read aloud by Australian and New Zealand storytellers. The website aims to inspire imagination, make reading exciting and encourage fun while reading.

There are also activities tied to each book to engage children in thinking about the book even once they've finished it.

ABOUT THE STORY STORY DETAILS ACTIVITIES

Don't forget to make your bed, and wear socks that fit your feet... Don't forget to care, to play, To run, to laugh...

Sometimes, we need to remember all the things we can do to be part of the world. Small things, like offering a smile. And bigger things, like hoping, dreaming, imagining...

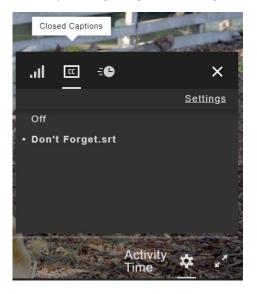

Written by Jane Godwin, illustrated by Anna Walker and read by Emma Donovan.

Playing a video

When playing a story, it will fill the whole screen.

You can turn on closed captions [CC] by clicking the gear in the right bottom corner of the video.

Activity Time

Each book has an activity tied to it. Activity Time is designed for use by families to help them and their children connect with the themes and characters of each story.

The activities differ for each story; collectively, they provide a variety of experiences for children that promote a balanced, connected, playful, active and creative approach to learning.

Types of activity include: Play, Art and Creativity, Outdoor and Nature Play, Family Games, Cooking, Exploring and Experimenting, Writing, Craft, and Digital Creation.

Supervision by an adult is always recommended.

To find the activity, you either click on "Activities" next to "About The Story" and "Story Details" or from the video, click on Activity Time in the bottom right corner.

This link leads you to a PDF which has the activity.
